

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation. It is one of the first steps on the way to totalitarianism - and we all ought to know that!!! This certainly is a blatant example of what the extremists running the Rep. Party will do and I hope the FCC is not going to be a part of this and just sit by or wait until Nov. 3 to do something!!!!

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. That means attempting to show both sides of the story! Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.